16 Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, filed a civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C.
17 § 1983, arguing that Defendant used excessive force upon him, in violation of the Eighth 18 Amendment. On January 28, 2013, Defendant filed a notice that he believed the case was not 19 suitable for summary judgment. The Court then referred this case to Magistrate Judge Nandor

22 appointed, and refers this matter to the Federal Pro Bono Project to find counsel. Upon an 23 attorney being located to represent Plaintiff, that attorney shall be appointed as counsel for 24 Plaintiff in this matter until further order of the Court. All proceedings in this action are stayed 25 until four weeks from the date an attorney is appointed to represent Plaintiff.
